10TH ANNIVERSARY PONY TRAILS

"The Kings of Cruise!" Friday, July 13th, 2007

Sponsored by:

We will begin at two locations: Bellevue Community College and North Seattle Community College. Lead cars from each location will guide vehicles to the point of departure - the Edmonds ferry.

The trail continues west via Washington State Ferries across Puget Sound to Kingston (current fare is $11.25 car & driver, and $6.50 per each additional passenger). From there, it's on to historic Port Gamble, across the Hood Canal floating bridge, and to the small town of Quilcene. Then down one of the most beautiful drives in western Washington, Highway 101. The trail ends at Shelton's Sanderson Field.

They have an inactive runway where organized drag races are held by the Shelton Drag Strip Association (www.sheltondragstrip.org), and we have been invited to participate in the event ($20 fee to race all day or $5 to watch). So if you've ever had the urge to run your steed down the quarter mile, here's your chance! The only requirements are a battery hold down, seat belts, and no broken glass.

Various food vendors and 10th Anniversary Pony Trails' apparel will be available.

Start time: 9:00am

Approximately 75 trail miles (ferries to Shelton)
